DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-22 and 40, drawn to T cell reactive peptides derived from Hev b 5 and a kit thereof.

Group II, claim(s) 23-26 and 40, drawn to antibodies to Hev b 5 and a kit thereof..

Group III, claim(s) 27-30 and 40, drawn to B cell reactive peptides and kits thereof.

Group IV, claim(s) 31, drawn to nucleic acids encoding T cell reactive peptides derived from Hev b 5.

Group V, claim(s) 31, drawn to nucleic acids encoding B cell reactive peptides derived from Hev b 5.

Group VI, claim(s) 32-36, drawn to methods of treating allergy with T cell reactive peptides.

Group VII, claim(s) 32-36, drawn to methods of treating Hev b 5 allergy with B cell reactive peptides.

Group VIII, claim(s) 32-36, drawn to methods of treating Hev b 5 allergy with antibodies to Hev b 5.

Art Unit: 1644

Group IX, claim(s) 37-38, drawn to methods of diagnosing allergy with B cell reactive peptides to detect antibodies.

Group X, claim(s) 37-38, drawn to methods of diagnosing allergy with T cell reactive peptides.

Group XI, claim(s) 39, drawn to detecting Hev b 5 with antibodies.

The inventions listed as Groups I-XI do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: as set forth in the IPER, the claims read upon naturally occurring peptides of Hev b 5, compounds well known in the prior art.

If applicant elects Groups I, III, IV or V the following species election is required.

This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

An exact peptide which reads upon one sequence or its nucleic acid sequence that encodes said one peptide sequence.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Art Unit: 1644

The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

2-11, 13-22

The following claim(s) are generic: 1 (For group I only), 12 (For group I only), 27 (For Group III only), 31 (For Group IV or V only) and 40.

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: each peptide or nucleic acid has distinct sequences which have no unifying concept other than they are derived from Hev b 5, a protein known in the prior art.

The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and a product claim is subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be rejoined in accordance with the provisions of MPEP § 821.04. Process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the patentable product will be entered as a matter of right if the amendment is presented prior to final rejection or allowance, whichever is earlier. Amendments submitted after final rejection are governed by 37 CFR 1.116; amendments submitted after allowance are governed by 37 CFR 1.312.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103, and 112. Until an elected product claim is found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowed product claim will not be rejoined. See "Guidance on Treatment of Product and Process Claims in light of In re Ochiai, In re

Brouwer and 35 U.S.C. § 103(b),” 1184 O.G. 86 (March 26, 1996). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, Applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution either to maintain dependency on the product claims or to otherwise include the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder.

Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.
